WHARF AND WAVE.

DIAMOND HEAD SIGNAL STATION, July 5, 10 A. M.—Weather is clear; wind, light N.

ALONG THE WATER FRONT, JULY 5.—Port Surveyor Stratemyer was busy all afternoon at Mauiola quarantine station attending to the releasing of the immigrants which arrived by the Rio de Janeiro. The transports Ohio at Oceanic dock and City of Para at Pacific Mail wharf, are busy loading coal. The Ohio will take on 350 tons and the City of Para 500 tons and the longshoremen are a tired lot this morning, having worked nearly all night. The ship Aryan is still discharging ballast at Fishmarket wharf and the ship Marie Hackfeld loading sugar at Wilder's wharf. The schooner Aloha was all day discharging two big boilers, twenty-four tons each, at the railway wharf, for Oahu plantation. In about three days the United States monitor Monadnock will commence coaling, after the transports have departed for Manila. About 1,500 tons of coal will be required for the transports, but it is not known what the capacity is of the bunkers of the transports that will arrive today. Hastace & Company, the draymen, have the contract for the carting of all the coal and W. H. Hoogs, their manager, is a busy man. A part of the coal lately purchased from the Inter Island company and stored in the new United States coal shed, will be used for coaling the transports. It comes principally from British Columbia and Newcastle, N. S. W., and some from England. The hucksters did a prosperous business all night long catering to the thirsty soldiers. The steamers Claudine, for Maui, and Mikahala, for Kauai, sailed yesterday afternoon with freight and passenger accommodations taxed to the utmost. The Neoa should arrive this morning with a cargo of Hamakua sugar. The barkentine S. N. Castle sailed for San Francisco yesterday afternoon with 850 tons of sugar and rice. T. H. Davies & Co. and W. G. Irwin & Co. were consignors of the sugar and the rice was shipped by Hyman Bros. M. Phillips & Co. and M. S. Grinbaum & Co.

Hackfeld's steam launch, lately purchased from Terence Keven, will go into service in Hilo bay next week.

STERLINGS AGAIN.

That the Sterling bicycle is invincible was exemplified at Cyclomere July 4th. Jones won both trial heats and both finals. King and Ludloff won their respective trials, and King both finals. Ludloff a close second. John Manoa won second in both professional. You can't beat the Sterling. Pacific Cycle and Mfg. Co., agents.
